Laureates of The Canadian Medical Hall of Fame cite qualities such as perseverance, collaboration and an entrepreneurial spirit as contributors to their success as national and world health leaders. Supported by our donors, The Canadian Medical Hall of Fame Award seeks to recognize medical students who demonstrate these qualities and show outstanding potential as future leaders and innovators of health care in Canada. Each Canadian medical school is invited to nominate a medical student completing his/her second undergraduate year of study at the time of application.

2015 STUDENT APPLICATION
Each Canadian medical school is invited to nominate one outstanding medical student for this Award. At this time, fifteen (15) recipients will be selected from seventeen (17) nominations. Awards of $21,000 each will be presented. Recipients also receive a complimentary ticket and travel bursary (up to $1,000 as approved) to The Canadian Medical Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony, held annually in April and hosted in association with rotating medical schools across the country. The 2016 CMHF Induction Ceremony will be hosted in association with McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario.
